

No Waste, Fraud, or Abuse

Management Professionalism: Abide by the highest ethical standards. If you cut corners and bend the rules when it comes to safeguarding the assets of the club, you can expect your employees will do likewise.

This is particularly important in regards to your personal productivity. Don't expect your employees to work hard if you don't set the example. Abuse any privilege associated with your position and risk the loss of your employees' respect.

Ethical standards are at the very heart of what you do – your personal and professional integrity. Often the appearance of wrongdoing can be as damaging as the reality. Follow the spirit as well as the letter of ethical requirements and set an unassailable example for those you lead and serve.
